

Elder Alessandro Dini-Ciacci

Seventy, Europe Area

THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

Elder Alessandro Dini-Ciacci was sustained as an Area Seventy of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on April 2, 2016.

At that time of his calling, he was serving as President of the Rome Italy West Stake with ecclesiastical responsibility over Western Lazio, Campania, and Sardinia.

Before joining the Church at age 18, Elder Dini-Ciacci earned a diploma in Classical Studies in Italy and then studied at Brigham Young University—Idaho (USA).

Before accepting a position as Supervisor for the Church's Translation Department in Italy, Elder Dini-Ciacci was sales manager for two leading Italian producers of luxury trimmings and fabrics for the furnishing and fashion industries.

Elder Dini-Ciacci served as a full-time missionary for two years in Greece and Cyprus. He also served as Naples Italy District Presidency counselor; Caserta branch president; member of the Rome Italy Stake high council; Rome 1 Ward bishopric counselor; Rome Italy Stake presidency counselor; and member of Italy's national council of Public Affairs.

In his current responsibility, Elder Dini-Ciacci is responsible for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Italy and fulfills ecclesiastical assignments throughout Europe under the direction of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles.

He was born on March 5, 1978. He married Sara Squarcia and they have 4 children.